

ORIENTATION PROGRAM(Online)
For M. Sc. First Year Chemistry Students
Specializations: Inorganic Chemistry, Organic Chemistry, Analytical Chemistry & Pharmaceutical Chemistry

Organised by Department of Chemistry,
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, Koti, Hyderabad

Date: 18th March 2021

REPORT

The Orientation program began with the Welcome Address by Dr. G. Vijaya Lakshmi, I/c Head, Department of Chemistry, UCW wherein she congratulated the PG first year students for taking admission into the best College of Telangana State, gave a detailed information about the Department regarding the strength of the department, infrastructural facilities, academic and research facilities, academic activities taken up in the department, various event celebrations, etc. It was followed by the message by Principal Prof. A. Roja Rani madam welcome the students heartily and lauded the Department for taking various activities promptly for the benefit of the staff and students, being one of the largest and successful departments of the college. Dr. M. Kavitha madam, Vice-Principal of the College congratulated the students for joining in the college, encouraged them to take up the course seriously and gave lot of information about the scholarships to them.

One of the Invited Guests Prof. U. Umesh Kumar, Chairman, Board of Studies, Department of Chemistry, University College of Science, Osmania University, Hyderabad inspired the students with his message. Sir explained about the significance of post-graduation in Chemistry subject, about NET and CSIR exams and PhD program. Sir exemplified his views giving several examples and quotes and mentioned about the alumni of Osmania University viz., Dr. Parthasarathi Reddy, Director, Hetero Drugs Ltd, Hyderabad and Dr. M. S. N. Reddy, Head, MSN Laboratories, Hyderabad who are now the leaders in the Pharmaceutical Industry and are involved in the Extension services by providing the medicines at low cost to the market. Sir motivated the students to plan their carrier for a better future.

Our next Invited Speaker Prof. P. Leelavathi, Department of Chemistry, University College of Science and Director, RDCC, Osmania University, Hyderabad. Madam gave details about the PG course in chemistry, importance of the subject, the various opportunities and possibilities the course offers has been given in detail to the students. She encouraged the students to use text books, have balanced diet, advised to attend the classes regularly.

Later, Dr. A. Gayathri Devi conducted the Interactive session by the some of the Senior Faculty with the students – Dr. K. Premalatha, Academic Coordinator, UCW and Organic chemistry faculty, Dr. V. Shashikala, Placement Coordinator, UCW and Inorganic Chemistry Faculty, Dr. Aliya Begum, Nodal Officer of the Certificate Courses, UCW, Dr. P. Mamatha, Mrs. M. Sravanthi, Dr. M. Thirupathi, Physical Chemistry faculty and Dr. D. AnithaRangasree gave lot of information to the students regarding the Semester Examinations, attendance, Internal Exams, Placements, various specializations, books availability in the Department Seminars, Accessibility to the other facilities in the Department, syllabus, etc.

The program ended with the formal Vote of Thanks by Mrs. Annapurna and the program was conducted by Mrs. M. Vijayatha.

