Every small locality, a village, a town, or a city, or neighbourhood has its own history which belongs to different periods of time. The study of local history encompasses both the tangible and intangible heritage, which creates the locality's identity. The focus on local histories is increasing in recent years, and there is a need to document the cultures of small localities before they disappear under the garb of globalization.

It is in the context of the growing importance of local histories, the Department of History and the Heritage Club of the University College for Women-Koti in collaboration with Vasaamaha Consultants, Hyderabad initiates this three day workshop on the historical, spatial, cultural, architectural, social, economic and artistic (both tangible and intangible) evolution of Hyderabad city.

Hyderabad, the city of pearls, is known for its History and heritage. Ruled by Qutb Shahs, Asaf Jahis and the British, Hyderabad has grown from a Fort town of Golkonda to a planned city of Hyderabad- the paradise on earth built around Charminar by the Fifth Qutb Shah ruler Mohd Quli Qutb Shah in 1591 and then moved to north of River Musi with the arrival of the British leading to the construction of the British Residency and Secunderabad Cantonment. It is the responsibility of every student, every citizen of Hyderabad to know about the rich history, culture and heritage of the city.
